A FRESH START

fresh cucumber and mint muddled, bacardi rum, lime juice, club soda, a splash of sweet and sour with a cucumber | 11

1857 - Before Daniel and James Blackburn purchased Rancho El Paso de Robles, it was still very much a part of the Wild West. Gangs of lawless men robbed stages and wagons along the countryside until Daniel became Sheriff. Once stagecoaches could travel safely through the area, more people traveled to the area for the naturally flowing hot springs and the “resort’s” fame continued to grow over the next two decades.

THE DUKE

pendleton rye whiskey, sweet vermouth, splash of bitters, shaken and served in a chilled martini glass | 13

The man, the myth, the legend—John Wayne, “The Duke” himself, is rumored to have enjoyed a whiskey from time to time at this very bar while filming scenes for some of his westerns out by the lake. Today, his likeness at the entrance welcomes fellow cowboys to Cattlemen’s Lounge.

THE DIRTY JAMES

chopin vodka and re:find gin with olive juice shaken and served in a chilled martini glass with blue cheese stuffed olives | 13

1868 - Two infamous outlaws, Frank and Jesse James, were busy robbing trains and getting themselves on the “Most Wanted” list when Jesse got shot in the lung. The duo sought refuge with their uncle, who was part owner of the Paso Robles land and the Hot Springs Hotel. Here, the soothing mineral water helped Jesse heal from his gunshot wounds and soon the brothers were back to no good.

MOO-TINI

absolut® vanilla vodka with godiva white chocolate liqueur and frangelico, shaken and served in a chocolate swirled martini glass | 13

Clarabelle the Wine Cow is one of 101 fiberglass cows grazing throughout the county in participation of CowParade SLO. With her body stuck in a wine barrel and a mouth full of grapes, Clarabelle honors the irresistible abundance of wineries and vineyards available in our own backyard.

THE PADEREWSKI

belvedere vodka, simple syrup, fresh lemon juice topped with ginger beer | 12

1913 – Famous pianist Iganacy Paderewski almost lost his career to arthritis until he discovered the healing mineral waters of the Paso Robles hot springs. After months of treatment here at the “Hot Springs Hotel” Paderewski was well enough to resume his concert tour. Over the next 30 years, he was a frequent guest of the hotel for the hot springs’ health benefits.

THE BURNING EMBER

bookers whiskey over ice with muddled orange and cherry, splash of bitters and club soda | 11

1940 – Paso Robles Hot Springs Hotel’s golden era met its tragic end on a cold December night. Flames engulfed the hotel’s central hallways, completely destroying the hotel, but all guests escaped unharmed. Firefighting efforts were focused on saving the beautiful dining room wing of the hotel, now known as The Ballroom—and the only remaining building from the original hotel.

MARILYN'S KISS

fresh strawberries and mint muddled with beefeater pink gin, served over ice with sprite and a splash of cream | 12

1954 - After a quick wedding in San Francisco, Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio headed down to Paso Robles where they spent their first night as man and wife enjoying a quiet dinner here at the Paso Robles Inn.

MARTIN-RITA

cabo wabo silver tequila, simple syrup, sweet and sour, fresh lime juice topped with pellegrino blood orange sparkling soda and a sugared rim | 12

1999 - Tom Martin and family purchased the Paso Robles Inn and immediately began a major renovation to bring the Inn back to its former glory. Since then, there have been ongoing renovations at the Inn as the Martin Family continues to serve as stewards of the historic property.

HELEN'S FIRE

re:find vodka, orange juice, peach schnapps and grenadine, shaken and served in a champagne flute with a floater of kiara bella sparkling | 12

1912 - Helen Sawyer was the daughter of the Hotel General Manager Frank Sawyer. No one knows for sure what happened to her, but she apparently decided to spend her afterlife playing where she lived as a child. There are many stories of her being "seen" near The Ballroom.
